

International Workshop: Smart Cities in Practice.

Enabling municipalities with digital transformation tools integrating big data about urban processes into custom information services and business models for urban communities.

Tuesday 31.10.2017,
Vienna, Austria

The agenda can be further updated.

09:30 — 10:00	Registration, coffee
10:00 — 10:20	Welcoming note “The Smart City Wien Framework Strategy and its implementation” by Ina Homeier, Head of Smart City Wien Unit Municipal Department 18-Urban Development and Planning Vienna Municipality
10:20 — 10:45	Smart Urbana H2020 project experiment results: Enabling municipalities in 5 European small and medium cities of 5 countries with cyber-physical system instruments and business models for digital transformation of real time, Elena Petrova, CEO ASIDEES, Austria
10:45 — 11:10	Municipality of Faro, Portugal: “Sharing regional data for sustainable development”, João Correia Vargues, Head, Divisão de Desenvolvimento Económico e Promoção Turística
11:10 — 11:35	Municipality of Alba Iulia, Romania: “Alba Iulia Smart City 2018 Pilot Project - The City where the Future was Born.” Nicolaie Moldovan, City Manager of Alba Iulia Municipality

11:35 — 12:00

Municipality of Volvi, Greece:
"Smart City Strategy towards zero waste and zero emission",
Thalia Valkouma, Dimitris Kintsakis Consultant of the Mayor

12:00 — 12:30

Coffee break, networking

12:30 — 12:50

City Hall Nisporeni, Moldova presentation
"Practical steps toward Smart City: Experience of small community"
by Grigorii Robu, Mayor

12:50 — 13:10

Operational Information Centre of Jelgava Municipality, Latvia:
"Overview of results and ongoing developments for Jelgava as Smart City"
by Gints Reinsons, Head of the Operational Information Centre of Jelgava Municipality

13:10 — 13:30

City of Gdynia, Poland
"Gdynia Happy City"
by Bartosz Bartoszewicz, Deputy Mayor of City of Gdynia

13:30 — 13:50

City of Kežmarok, Slovak Republic
"Smart green city Kežmarok—the establishment of a unified economy."
by Ján Ferenčák, Mayor of City of Kežmarok

13:50 — 14:00

City of Olexandriya, Ukraine
"Sustainable development strategy of the City of Olexandriya untill 2030."
by Stepan Tsapiuk, Mayor of the city of Olexandriya

14:00 — 14:20

Coffee break, networking

14:20 — 14:45

"Digital Economy in metropolitan areas: New approach to management"
by Irina Arhipova, Professor, Latvia University of Agriculture, Jelgava and Vladimirs Šalajevs, CBDO, SIA Ecommerce Accelerator, Rīga, Latvia

14:45 — 15:10	“ISO Smart City standards in practice: Considering current and further cities’ needs and expectations in new standards formulation and implementation“ Dr. Bernard Gindroz, Chairman of ISO TC 268, Sustainable Cities and Communities.
15:10 — 15:30	Smart City Monitor update: Novel custom digital transformation services and business models for urban communities supporting sustainable management of air quality, energy, water, waste, circular economy, socio-economic dynamics, resilience and other common urban processes”, Serguei Golovanov, CEO Golem IMS GmbH, Austria
15:30 — 16:00	Making consortiums for innovative projects financed by Horizon 2020, Interreg and Structural funds in 2018 and 2019, Overview of calls and options, discussions and networking
16:00	Closing discussions

Venue: Frankgasse 4, 1090 Vienna, Austria

Fees: THERE IS NO CHARGE FOR THIS EVENT

Registration: Open until full capacity of the venue facility

Information and registration: info@asidees.org